Question: How do I record my attendance?

Live Courses: Please check in at the registration desk upon arrival to pick up and scan your name badge. You will also be asked to sign in on the sign in sheet.

Online Courses – Once registered, your attendance has been recorded. You have until the activity expiration date to complete the course.

RSS Courses – There are three ways to check in for Grand Rounds.

1. Via text message – A distinct code will be provided for each Grand Rounds.

If this is the first time you are texting your attendance, you must first pair your mobile number to your account. Text your email address to (443) 541-5052. You will receive a text notification indicating your phone number has been updated.

Once your account is paired to your mobile number and you have obtained the event code, send the code via text to: (443) 541-5052. For recording Live Stream activities, attendees will receive a code via email.

Please note - Attendance can only be recorded 15 mins. prior to the activity start time, during the activity and up to 8 hour after the activity closes.

2. Via mobile app – in your browser search CloudCME® check in or CloudCME® mobile app and download to your Apple or Android device(s) to access the Check-in menu.

3. Via web - Click Sign In (upper left hand corner) and click the My CME button. Click the blue box for Claim Credit. Enter the activity ID number in the Event ID box and complete the remaining questions. Click Submit.

Question: How do I attest to my credit(s)?

Live Courses – Click Sign In (upper left hand corner) and sign in with your email address and password or JHED ID and password, if you are a Johns Hopkins employee. Once signed in, click the yellow My CME button. Click the blue box for Evaluation and Certificates and complete the evaluation. Upon completion of the evaluation, the learner must attest to the number of hours in attendance. Credits earned will be added to the learner’s transcript and immediately available for print. The last day to access the evaluation and attest to your credits is 45 calendar days post activity.

RSS Courses – Click Sign In (upper left hand corner) and click the My CME button. Click the blue box for Claim Credit. Enter the activity ID number in the Event ID box and complete the remaining questions. Click Submit.

Online Courses – A post-test will be conducted at the conclusion of the activity. A grade of at least 75% within three attempts is needed to receive CME credit. An online evaluation will be available to attendees to evaluate the activity and individual presentations and to identify future educational needs. Upon completion of the evaluation, the learner must attest to the number of hours in attendance. Credits earned will be added to the learner’s transcript and immediately available for print.

Question: How do I submit a Tuition Remission Form?

Johns Hopkins University full-time faculty and staff can utilize professional development tuition remission for their registration fee. There are no limits to the amount of CME tuition remission you submit and no funds are directly procured from your department unless you do not attend. Activity directors are not eligible to submit for the CME activity they plan. Forms may be retrieved at the following link: <http://benefits.jhu.edu/documents/trffacandstaff.pdf>

<http://www.hopkinscme.edu/migration/TRinstructions.html>

The Office of Continuing Medical Education is not responsible for the tuition remission program. The tuition remission policies and procedures are administered by the Benefits Office at Johns Hopkins University.
